This Addendum applies when incorporated by reference in a written agreement with Company or in Beam Service Terms accepted by Customer (the “Agreement”). The version identified in that Agreement applies; publication of a later version does not amend the Agreement.

This Data Processing Addendum (“Addendum”) is hereby incorporated into the agreement ("Agreement") entered by and between the customer that is a party to that Agreement ("Customer") and Beam Strategic Execution Ltd. (“Company”).

WHEREAS the Company has developed and operates the Platform, and Customer wishes to use the Platform for Customer's internal business purposes; and

WHEREAS use of the Platform may involve the processing of certain Personal Data (as defined below), and the parties wish to regulate their mutual obligations in relation to such Personal Data through this Addendum, which forms an integral part of the Agreement.

THEREFORE, the parties have agreed as follows.

1. Definitions. In this Addendum, the following terms shall be interpreted as follows:
   1.1. "Applicable Law” means Israeli Privacy Protection Law, 5741-1981 and the regulations promulgated thereunder (and in particular the Privacy Protection Regulations (Data Security), 5777-2017), the guidelines of the Israeli Data Protection Authority, as well as any legislative or administrative provision or directive that will apply to the Company in connection with the provision of services through the Platform under the Agreement.
   1.2. "Customer Personal Data" means any Personal Data Company Processes as part of the provision of its services through the Platform on behalf of the Customer and under Customer's instructions
   1.3. "Database" means a collection of Personal Data Processed by digital means.
   1.4. “Personal Data” means any information relating to an identified individual or an individual who is reasonably identifiable, including through means of an identifier such as a name, ID number, biometric identifier, location data, an online identifier, or one or more factors relating to the physical, health, economic, social, or cultural identity of such individual.
   1.5. "Personal Data Breach” means an actual or reasonably suspected incident: (a) of unauthorized access to or use of Customer Personal Data, or such access or use exceeding authorization, or (b) impacting the integrity of the Customer Personal Data in a manner that is not authorized or exceeds authorization.
   1.6. "Processing" (and its derivatives, including, but not limited to "Process") means the collection, access, retention, modification, use, disclosure and transfer of Personal Data.

Any capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Agreement.

2. Scope. This Addendum shall only apply where the Company Processes Customer Personal Data. It shall not apply to any other Processing of Personal Data by Company.
3. Order of Precedence. In the event of any conflicting provisions between this Addendum and the Agreement or any other agreement in place between the parties, the provisions of this Addendum shall prevail solely in relation to the Processing of Customer Personal Data.
4. Company's obligations regarding the Processing of Customer Personal Data
   4.1. The Company shall Process the Customer Personal Data solely for the purpose of providing its Platform and any services associated therewith under the Agreement, and only in the manner determined in the Agreement and in this Addendum.
   4.2. The Company shall implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk, as set forth in this Addendum.
   4.3. The Company undertakes to manage access rights to Customer Personal Data, including by way of providing its employees with 'Least Privileges' based on their 'Need to Know', for the purpose of carrying out their tasks, and shall take measures in order to prevent access by unauthorized individuals to Customer Personal Data. The Company shall remain liable to the Customer for any action or omission by anyone Processing Customer Personal Data on Company's behalf.
5. Disclosure and transfer of Customer Personal Data
   5.1. The Company shall not disclose Customer Personal Data in the scope of its Processing activities to any entity, unless the Customer has provided its prior written consent, except:
      5.1.1. As strictly necessary for the provision of the Platform and any services associated therewith.
      5.1.2. Where such disclosure is required by Applicable Law or during legal proceedings, in which case the Company shall notify the Customer thereof in writing prior to fulfilling the disclosure request (unless prohibited by law to do so), and will cooperate and disclose the minimum Personal Data necessary to comply with Applicable Law or legal proceedings;
   5.2. The Customer authorizes the Company to engage third party sub-processors and service providers in Processing Customer Personal Data within the scope of the Agreement and this Addendum. The Company will contractually bind sub-processors to Process the Customer Personal Data in a manner consistent with the Company's obligations under this Addendum and any Applicable Law, by way of engaging in a written contract providing sufficient guarantees thereof. The Company shall be liable to the Customer for sub- processors' compliance with their obligations.
   5.3. The Company shall comply with Applicable Law, including but not limited to the Protection of Privacy Regulations (Transfer of Information to Databases Outside of Israel), 5761-2001, with respect to any cross-border disclosure or transfer of Customer Personal Data under this Addendum. The Company shall provide the Customer with thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any intended transfer of Customer Personal Data to a foreign jurisdiction outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). If the Customer does not object to the transfer within thirty (30) days, the Company shall transfer the Customer Personal Data and update the Customer of its compliance with Applicable Law in relation to the transfer.

6. Storage, Deletion and Return of Personal Data

6.1. The Company shall implement market-standard information security measures to ensure the integrity, availability, confidentiality, and reliability of the Customer Personal Data. In this regard, the Company shall implement measures to protect the Customer Personal Data from unauthorized access throughout its retention in the Company's systems and during its transfer between the parties or between the Company and third parties.

6.2. If the Company stores Customer Personal Data in its systems –

6.2.1. The Company shall maintain logical separation between the systems used to access Customer Personal Data ("Database Systems") and other computer systems used by the Company that are not directly related to the Processing of Customer Personal Data. If the Database Systems are connected to the Internet or another public network, the Company shall implement appropriate means of protection, such as firewall and anti-virus tools.

6.2.2. The Company shall retain the Customer Personal Data only as strictly necessary to provide the Platform and services associated therewith to Customer, or as mandatory under Applicable Law.

6.2.3. The Company shall regularly update the Database Systems, including the software installed in the Database Systems, with information security updates. When operating the Database Systems, Company shall not use software and/or hardware components that the manufacturer does not support the security of.

6.2.4. The Company shall not enable the connection of removable devices to the Database Systems without Company's prior written approval.

6.2.5. The Company shall document any activities undertaken in the Database Systems, including access attempts, deletion or modification of Customer Personal Data, Database development, and changes to access permissions.

6.3. Upon Customer's written request where no subsequent further processing is required, or when the Agreement is terminated or expires, the Company shall, at the instruction of the Customer, delete or destroy any Customer Personal Data in its possession. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Company may retain statistical or aggregated anonymized data derived from Customer Personal Data, and use it for Company's business purposes.

7. Data subjects' rights

7.1. The Company shall reasonably assist Customer, at its request, in handling data subjects' requests to review their Personal data, rectify it or delete it (each, a "Data Subject Request"). The Company shall pass on to the Customer any Data Subject Request it receives, along with any relevant details.

7.2. The Company shall, at the request of the Customer in writing, rectify or delete Customer Personal Data it stores in its systems.

8. Personal Data Breach

8.1. The Company shall, without undue delay, notify the Customer of any Personal Data Breach that it becomes aware of. Such notice shall include details of the nature of the Personal Data Breach, the category and approximate number of affected individuals, anticipated consequences and proposed remedies for mitigating the possible adverse effects of the Personal Data Breach.

8.2. Following investigation of the Personal Data Breach, the parties shall discuss in good faith and reach an agreement regarding the measures reasonably required to repair the Personal Data Breach and the schedule for their implementation. The Company shall promptly implement such required measures.

8.3. The Company shall reasonably assist Customer (upon request) in issuing required statements or notices to authorities and data subjects.

9. Audit, Documentation and Monitoring. The Company shall allow the Customer to audit the Company's compliance with its obligations hereunder, no more than once per year and subject to (i) at least twenty-one (21) days' prior notice; and (ii) confidentiality undertaking by the auditor.

10. Liability. The Company's liability in connection with a breach of this Addendum or Applicable Law shall be as set forth in the Agreement.

11. Termination. All provisions of this Addendum that are required by Applicable Law shall remain in effect following the expiration or termination of the Agreement, for as long as the Company retains Customer Personal Data in its possession.

12. Disputes. Any dispute that the parties are unable to amicably resolve under this Addendum shall be subject to the sole and exclusive jurisdiction and venue specified in the Agreement.
